HISTORY CLUE #11

After George Bartell, Sr. retired, he spent his time visiting stores and talking to employees — as well as going to as many baseball games as he could! To learn more about Mr. Bartell's retirement, read page 11 of Bart's Travelogue. If you don't already have a Travelogue, you can find one in the front of your local Bartell Drugs store — or visit historylink.org/bart.

YOUR MISSION: Do some research into local baseball! From 1903 to 1938, Seattle had a baseball team named the Indians. Visit HistoryLink.org (the online encyclopedia of Washington state history) and find out what name this team took in 1938, as well as where they played. Then, attend a baseball game yourself — or watch one on TV. Complete the following information, then drop your entry in a Bartell Drugs Magical History Tour drop box or mail it to the address below.

New name of the Seattle Indians _____
Name of stadium where the new team played _____
Name of the two teams that played in the baseball game you watched _____
Baseball field where this game took place _____
Final score _____
(staple a piece of paper to this clue if you need more space)

Name _____
