

★
★
Win a National Parks Pass and a vacation to Great Wolf Lodge! Enter today!

HISTORY CLUE #8

In 1897, the steamship Portland arrived in Seattle carrying more than a ton of gold from the Klondike River in Canada's Yukon Territory. The Klondike Gold Rush was on! To learn more about how the Gold Rush affected our region, read page 8 of Bart's Travelogue. If you don't already have a Travelogue, you can find one at the front of your local Bartell Drugs store — or visit historylink.org/bart.

YOUR MISSION: The history of the Pacific Northwest's part in the Gold Rush is featured at the Klondike Gold Rush Museum in downtown Seattle's Pioneer Square. Visit this free museum and view the exhibits and artifacts. Make sure to count the number of gold bars on the main floor of the exhibit! Record that number, then drop your entry in a Bartell Drugs Magical History Tour drop box or mail it to the address below.

Number of gold bars _____

Name _____

Age _____ School _____

Name of parent or legal guardian _____

Parent/legal guardian's e-mail address _____

Address _____ Phone number _____

City _____ State _____ ZIP _____

Mail entry form to: 2010 Magical History Tour, 4727 Denver Ave S, Seattle, WA 98134

Enter our weekly drawing for your chance to win one annual National Parks pass for your family. Plus, five second-place winners will each receive a $10 Bartell Drugs gift card. You will also be entered into our grand-prize drawing for a family vacation to Great Wolf Lodge, including a two-night stay in a Wolf Den Suite, breakfast passes for four, water park passes for four and $120 USD.

Klondike Gold Rush

You must complete all requested information and your entry must be deposited in a Bartell Drugs drop box by Sunday, July 18, 2010, or postmarked by Monday, July 19, 2010, to be eligible for the weekly drawing. For a complete set of contest rules, please visit <http://services.nwsourc.com/nie/HistoryTour>. If you have any questions about the contest, please e-mail nie@seattletimes.com or call 206/652-6290.

BARTELL DRUGS

— Washington's Own Drugstores® —