

ABOUT OUR CONTEST

This summer, NIE, HistoryLink.org, and Bartell Drugs are hosting a history hunt contest called the Magical History Tour. Each Monday between May 24th and August 23rd a clue will be released. You can find the clue for the week in The Seattle Times on Mondays or at HistoryLink.org. Once you have the clue, tour historical sites in the Puget Sound region to find the answers. Each week you will be able to find additional resources and locations for the clues on HistoryLink.org. You can turn in your answers at any Bartell Drugs location in King, Snohomish and Pierce counties or mail them to NIE or Bartell Drugs using the addresses below. Every time you turn in an answer, you will be entered into a weekly prize drawing, as well as a special summer-long drawing for a family vacation to Great Wolf Lodge.

BARTELL DRUGS
Washington's Own Drugstores

HISTORY CLUE

1

George Bartell opened his first drugstore in Seattle in 1890. Because cars and trucks (like Bart) had not yet been invented, most people lived within walking distance of their workplaces. Mr. Bartell even lived in the back room of his first store! As he opened new drugstores, Mr. Bartell gave each one a number that was displayed on the store sign. Today, each Bartell Drugs store still has its own number, although it is no longer shown on the store sign.

YOUR MISSION: Visit any Bartell Drugs store and go to the photo department. Look for a sign with Bart's picture on it – the sign will tell you the store's special number. Write down the store's address and its number in the space below. Then drop your answer in the Bartell Drugs drop box, or mail this entry to the address at the bottom of this ad.
