Accurate, life-size model of the Vanguard Satellite which was placed into orbit March 17, 1958.
The solar battery and semi conductors developed by the Bell Laboratories are an integral part of the Vanguard and many other satellites. The signal you hear is produced by converting energy from the sun.